

BLZ | Amazon Book, Workbook, and Handbook License Agreement

Copyright 2026 BLZ | Bilingual Learning Zone. All rights reserved.

Limited Personal and Family Use License

APPLIES TO AMAZON PRINT-FORMAT PRODUCTS. This agreement applies to legally purchased BLZ books, workbooks, handbooks, and other print-format publications purchased through Amazon or another authorized retail channel. The terms below apply to the protected content contained in those products, including stories, passages, activities, prompts, illustrations, photographs, coloring designs, puzzles, word searches, reflection pages, support documents, instructional structures, and all original components.

OWNERSHIP; ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. The purchaser owns the legally purchased physical copy of the book, workbook, handbook, or other print-format product. BLZ | Bilingual Learning Zone retains all copyright and intellectual-property rights in the product and every original story, passage, activity, prompt, illustration, photograph, coloring design, puzzle, word search, reflection page, support document, instructional structure, and component. All rights are reserved. Ownership of the physical copy does not transfer copyright or any reproduction, distribution, adaptation, public-display, classroom, institutional, digital, licensing, or commercial-exploitation rights in the protected content.

PERMITTED PERSONAL AND FAMILY USE. One legally purchased physical copy may be used by the purchaser and members of the purchaser's immediate household for personal and family educational use. A child whose family purchased the product may bring and personally use that same physical copy at school, subject to family and school rules. That personal use does not create a classroom license or authorize any teacher, school, employee, volunteer, or other person to copy, display, distribute, upload, or assign any portion to another person.

NO CLASSROOM, PROFESSIONAL, GROUP, OR INSTITUTIONAL LICENSE. A teacher, tutor, counselor, therapist, mentor, school employee, program, organization, or institution may purchase and own one or multiple physical copies; however, no such purchase creates classroom, professional, group, program, or institutional-use rights. A copy purchased by a teacher, school, program, organization, or institution may not be used with any student, client, participant, class, or group without a separate written license from BLZ. The product may not be converted into handouts, worksheets, homework or intervention packets, learning-center materials, classroom sets, projected lessons, digital assignments, or shared copies.

NO COPYING, DIGITAL SHARING, OR GROUP DISPLAY. No page or portion may be photocopied; scanned or photographed for reproduction, storage, extraction, uploading, sharing, or distribution; printed as an additional copy; duplicated; emailed; uploaded; posted; transmitted; stored in a shared drive or cloud folder; placed in a learning-management system or digital classroom; posted to a website or social-media account; or otherwise distributed in physical or electronic form. No group display, live screen-share, projection, or instructional presentation is authorized by this license except as permitted by applicable law or by separate written permission from BLZ.

NO INTENTIONAL ALTERATION FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE, RESALE, OR DERIVATIVE WORKS. No person may intentionally extract, edit, translate, abridge, adapt, arrange, reformat, trace, redraw, reconstruct, rebuild, repackage, combine, recast, transform, or otherwise modify protected content to evade this license; conceal or misrepresent BLZ ownership or authorship; reproduce, publish, distribute, transmit, license, sublicense, sell, or commercially exploit the content; or prepare, create, publish, distribute, license, sell, or exploit any derivative or adapted work based upon, incorporating, reproducing, recasting, transforming, or adapting protected expression from a BLZ book, workbook, handbook, or print-format product. Such conduct does not transfer ownership or create any right to reproduce, publish, distribute, display, license, sublicense, sell, or otherwise exploit the protected content and constitutes a material breach of this license.

REQUIRED PAGE BRANDING AND OWNERSHIP IDENTIFIERS. Every activity, worksheet, reflection, puzzle, support page, and instructional page bears the ownership identifier ©BLZ | BilingualLearningZone.com. It must remain fully visible, complete, legible, and unaltered. No person may remove, erase, crop, trim, cover, conceal, obscure, blur, fade, replace, reposition, alter, disable, or omit that identifier in connection with unauthorized reproduction, distribution, resale, or derivative use. Such conduct constitutes a material breach of this license and may also violate applicable law protecting copyright-management information. The presence of the identifier does not grant permission to copy or distribute the content.

WRITTEN PERMISSION; CONSEQUENCES AND REMEDIES. Any use beyond this limited personal and family license requires prior express written authorization from BLZ describing the approved use. Unauthorized use is a breach of this license and may also constitute copyright infringement. BLZ will require the prohibited activity to stop, seek removal or takedown of unauthorized material, and will pursue compensation and all remedies permitted by law, including reasonable licensing fees, actual damages, profits attributable to the violation, statutory damages when available, injunctive relief, court and enforcement costs, and reasonable attorney's fees when recoverable. Failure to enforce a provision immediately does not waive BLZ's rights.

USES PERMITTED BY LAW. Nothing in this agreement is intended to restrict brief quotations used in legitimate reviews, criticism, scholarship, or other uses permitted by applicable law.
